Information about assessed disclosure under the Right to Information Act 2009

Object of the Act

Section 3 of the Act includes this statement of the objects of the Act:

- (1) The object of this Act is to improve democratic government in Tasmania –
- (a) by increasing the accountability of the executive to the people of Tasmania; and*
 - (b) by increasing the ability of the people of Tasmania to participate in their governance; and*
 - (c) by acknowledging that information collected by public authorities is collected for and on behalf of the people of Tasmania and is the property of the State.*
- (2) This object is to be pursued by giving members of the public the right to obtain information held by public authorities and Ministers.
- (3) This object is also to be pursued by giving members of the public the right to obtain information about the operations of Government.
- (4) It is the intention of Parliament –
- (a) that this Act be interpreted so as to further the object set out in subsection (1); and*
 - (b) that discretions conferred by this Act be exercised so as to facilitate and promote, promptly and at the lowest reasonable cost, the provision of the maximum amount of official information.*

Applications for Assessed Disclosure

– Applications are to be addressed to:

Right to Information Officer
PO BOX 102
WESTBURY
TASMANIA 7303

– Applications are to be made in writing and include the information required by Regulation 4 of the Right to Information Regulations 2010.

– Applications are to be accompanied by the application fee. This fee is 25 fee units, which is $44.50 as at 1 July 2023 and is indexed annually.

– An applicant can apply for the application fee to be waived where the applicant is a Member of Parliament in the pursuit of their official duty; where the applicant is impecunious; and where the information sought is intended to be used for a purpose that is of general public interest or benefit.

Responsibilities of the Public Authority

– Applicants are to be notified of the decision on an application for assessed disclosure within 20 working days of the application being accepted by the public authority.

– Before the application is accepted, the public authority has a maximum of 10 working days to negotiate with the applicant to further define the application.

– If a need to consult with a third party arises, a further 20 working days will be allowed in addition to the original 20 days.

– If these time limits are not conformed with, the application will be deemed to be refused and the applicant may apply to the Ombudsman for a review of that decision.

Proof of Identity

– If you are applying for personal information related to you which is held by a public authority you will need to provide proof of identity prior to any information being released to you. This should be done at the time of making your application.

– Photo Identification or a copy of photo identification which has been certified as a true copy by a Justice of the Peace or a Commissioner for Declarations is the minimum acceptable.
